

ASTARA CAPITAL PARTNERS

Investors and Operators partnering to build sustainable value

Investment Strategy

Astara Capital Partners brings capital and strategic resources to middle-market companies in order to build sustainable value and deliver exceptional returns to its investors. Leveraging our network of operators and advisors, we find value in opportunities that others overlook due to complex factors that repel most private equity investors.

By partnering with exceptional management teams and collaborating with other stakeholders we can breathe new life into companies and bring clarity to complexity.
